

Educators Showcase: Bringing an Equity Lens to Teaching About Mental Wellness/Health, Substance Use Health, and Suicidality

Presenters:

- Colleen Varcoe, Professor Emeritus, University of British Columbia School of Nursing, EQUIP Health Care Co-Lead
- Victoria Smye, Associate Professor & Director of the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing at Western University
- Petrea Taylor, Associate Professor, University of New Brunswick, Faculty of Nursing

Discussants:

- Ranjit Dhari, Associate Professor of Teaching, University of British Columbia School of Nursing
- Ashley McKeown, Lecturer, Western University
- Alexis Smith, Clinical Practice Faculty Lead, Western University

Host:

- Annette J. Browne, Professor & Distinguished Scholar, University of British Columbia School of Nursing, EQUIP Health Care Co-Lead

This Showcase provides an opportunity for health and mental health educators to discuss strategies and approaches to teaching about mental health, substance use health, and suicidality through a health equity lens. We will:

1. Provide an overview of EQUIP's resources regarding the intersections among mental health, substance use and suicidality with attention to trauma- and violence-informed care, cultural safety, and anti-racism
2. Engage in a discussion about how teaching can be approached in a wide variety of classroom and clinical settings

The Showcase will be held twice during October 2023 via Zoom:

1. Tuesday, October 3rd from 9:30 am to 11 am PDT | 12:30 pm to 2 pm EDT | 1:30 pm to 3 pm ADT
2. Thursday, October 12th from 10 am to 11:30 am PDT | 1 pm to 2:30 pm EDT | 2 pm to 3:30 pm ADT

Project title: Knowledge Mobilization to Promote Mental Health and Substance Use Health of Those Most Affected By the COVID-19 Pandemic

Project team: Annette J. Browne, Amélie Blanchet Garneau, Colleen Varcoe, Nadine Wathen, & Bruce Wallace

Please register for a FREE ticket HERE.